

ManTech Scores Four DARPA Wins Totaling $60 Million

July 9, 2018

HERNDON, Va., July 09, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ManTech (Nasdaq:MANT) today announced four new task order contracts awarded by the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) Strategic Technologies Office. The four new task order contracts have a total value of $60 million, and are part of a $200 million multi-year IDIQ contract awarded to ManTech in 2017.

"Bringing Digital to the Mission"

"Whether on land, sea, air or beneath the waves, ManTech is committed to 'Bringing Digital to the Mission' in innovative ways that give American warfighters strategic advantage against adversaries," said Matt Tait, president of ManTech's Mission Solutions & Services (MSS) Group. "For more than 20 years, ManTech has helped DARPA test and evaluate advanced technologies, and we are honored to continue and expand on this exciting work."

ManTech will provide advanced systems engineering and technical assistance (SETA) support for DARPA initiatives across the diverse disciplines of sensor enhancement, maritime defenses, radar and communications, and battle management control.
