HERNDON, Va., Nov. 02, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ManTech (Nasdaq:MANT) today announced that Rick Wagner, President of the company’s Mission, Cyber & Intelligence Solutions (MCIS) Group has been honored with the WashingtonExec Pinnacle Award for “2018 Intelligence Executive of the Year.”

“Rick Wagner provides vision, strategy and operations management of the company’s business with the Intelligence Community,” said Kevin Phillips, ManTech President and CEO. “Since joining ManTech in 2015 he has guided our emergence as one of the industry’s principal thought leaders in developing and delivering innovative technology solutions for the IC.”

Among Wagner’s achievements since his January 2018 advancement to leadership of ManTech MCIS are signature wins of $959 million for enterprise IT with a large defense agency for secure enterprise IT, $669 million with the Department of Homeland Security for CDM, $158 million with the Air Force Space Command, and $133 million with Army INSCOM.

Wagner is also a proponent of training that advances the careers of ManTech personnel who support the Intelligence Community, Department of Defense and federal civilian agencies. Examples include ManTech’s relationship with Purdue Global University to provide CISSP training and certification, and college-accredited courses in cyber and cloud that count toward bachelor’s and master’s degrees.
