

ManTech Appoints Bryce Pippert as Senior Vice President and General Manager, Mission Solutions & Services Group's Federal Civilian Business Unit

January 31, 2019

HERNDON, Va., Jan. 31, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ManTech (Nasdaq: MANT) today announced that it has named Bryce Pippert as Senior Vice President for the Federal Civilian Business Unit of the company's Mission Solutions and Services (MSS) Group, reporting to MSS President Matt Tait.

Bryce Pippert, ManTech Senior Vice President, Federal Civilian Business

Effective February 1, 2019, Mr. Pippert lead our efforts to advance ManTech solutions that meet federal civilian agencies' strategic objectives for modernization of operations, systems and infrastructure; best-in-class security; and effective data utilization. He joins ManTech after more than 12 years with Booz Allen Hamilton, where he most recently served as a Senior Vice President leading digital and analytic priorities.

"Bryce Pippert has a strong record of helping federal agencies implement major reforms and solve their tough problems to better serve citizens through the more effective use of data, and by leveraging modern methods and technologies," said Matt Tait. "At ManTech, he will help our federal customers achieve greater mission impact and productivity at a cost savings."
