

ManTech Named One of “50 Great Places to Work” in Washington

April 18, 2019

HERNDON, Va., April 18, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ManTech (Nasdaq: MANT) today announced that Washingtonian Magazine has recognized the company as one of the “50 Great Places to Work” in the Washington, D.C. area. Washingtonian selected ManTech and other winners following extensive review of companies and non-profits throughout the region, and more than 7,500 employee surveys. Final award determinations weighed heavily on individual scores given by company employees.

Washingtonian Magazine names ManTech one of the “50 Great Places to Work” in the Washington, DC metropolitan area.

“ManTech is honored to be recognized by Washingtonian as one of the top employers of choice in our nation’s capital,” said Jeff Brody, Chief Human Resources Officer. “This honor is a tribute to ManTech’s culture of total dedication to the customer mission, and to the 8,000 great employees who share this dedication.”

Washingtonian Magazine’s “50 Great Places to Work” spans a wide variety of employers in the greater metropolitan area. Attributes of winning workplaces include generous pay and benefits, interesting and meaningful work, great work/life balance, opportunities to learn and grow, commitment to charity and community, and recognition and respect for employees.
