ManTech Announces Stephen Porter’s Retirement and Appointment as Director Emeritus

FAIRFAX, Va., March 17, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — ManTech International Corporation (Nasdaq: MANT) announced that Stephen Porter will retire from the Company’s Board of Directors following the completion of his current Board term. Mr. Porter will, however, continue his association with and contributions to the Company by serving as the ManTech’s first ever Director Emeritus. In that role, Mr. Porter will continue to provide the Board with the benefit of his keen business insight and deep knowledge of the Company.

“We owe a debt of gratitude to Steve for his dedication to the Company. Steve served on our Board for nearly a quarter century. His judgment and integrity helped guide ManTech’s evolution from a $100 million Navy-focused government contractor to the $1.6 billion public company we are today,” said ManTech Chairman and Chief Executive Officer George J. Pedersen. “I would like, in particular, to extend my heartfelt gratitude to Steve for his many years of dedicated service, wisdom and friendship. I am pleased that Steve will serve in the role of Director Emeritus, so that we may continue to benefit from his valuable experience and counsel.”
